

INTEGRAREPORT: A HOTLINE TO HELP YOU PROTECT YOUR ORGANIZATION

experience expertise // Fraudulent or unethical behavior can be devastating to your organization. Most colleges and universities today are extremely concerned about protecting their assets and, ultimately, their reputation. According to a recent study by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, education is one of the top five industries victimized by fraudulent or unethical behavior. Often, the key to early detection is a tip. The study found that fraud schemes were detected an average of 12 months sooner when a hotline was in place.
